

Wakefield Will Graduate 589

The 589 members of the Wakefield High School graduating class were served with a Hawaiian luau by members of the Hawaiian State Society following their senior prom recently.

Arrangements for the dinner were made by Mrs. Ruth Hoy, head of the mathematics department who is a member of the society.

The prom was held in the girls' gymnasium. After the Hawaiian feast, the class members attended a splash party at the Brookville Swimming pool.

Senior recognition day and an autograph party will be held Wednesday, and the class picture will be taken Friday. The Rev. Roy Smith of the Mt. Olivet Methodist Church will give the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday at 3 p.m. in the boys' gymnasium.

Formal graduation ceremonies will be held Friday, June 14, in the gymnasium.

Honor graduates are Alma Ann Lee, Amy Rachel Richter, Cecelia Ann Roton and George B. Winton. These students hold the highest academic standing in the class, each having an A average for three years at the school.

David Zalkind, president of the National Honor Society at Wakefield, has been chosen to give the graduation address for the students. Arlington County School Board Chairman James G. Stockard will greet the students.

Robert Lawrence White is president of the class. Other officers are Catherine Saulmon, vice president; Patricia Swanson, secretary; and Jeffrey Foster, treasurer.
